ENVISION TO REIGN IN LIFE EXCELLENTLY - Achievers' Enriching Mystery to Daily Triumph -

Shalom! Kingdom greetings!! Thanks and praise go to our God for another privilege of Achievers' Faith Digest publication in the precious name of our Saviour-King and Lord, Jesus Christ, Amen.

I earnestly pray and trust God that at the receipt of this November 2014 issue that all things shall be under your feet and control; and you will not only envision your throne but reign excellently in all by the grace of our God in Christ Jesus.

Thank you for all the comments on the website and via e-mail that some have made; and I do also appreciate those who diligently pray for this work of gracious publications to abound from strength to strength until the Lord returns in glory, Amen.

While we say thank you, may we also intimate the need to know that while we publish we are engaged earnestly as in our prayer motto of 1 Samuel 12:22-24, praying to God our Father on your behalf.

"For the Lord will not forsake his people for his great name's sake: because it hath pleased the Lord to make you his people. 23 Moreover as for me, God forbid that I should sin against the Lord in ceasing to pray for you: but I will teach you the good and the right way: 24 only fear the Lord, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for consider how great things he hath done for you." 1 Samuel 12:22-24.

Scriptural Reading:

“Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree. 12 Then said the Lord unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.” Jeremiah 1:11-12.

“And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him. 23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought. 24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking. 25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly. 26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.” Mark 8:22-26.

“Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.” Proverbs 29:18.

ENVISION TO REIGN IN LIFE EXCELLENTLY

- Achievers' Enriching Mystery To Daily Triumph -

PREAMBLE : Prophetic Declaration

*“A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary” Jeremiah 17:12.

*“For I know the thoughts and plans that I have for you, says the Lord, thoughts and plans for welfare and peace and not for evil, to give you hope in your final outcome” Jeremiah 29:11.

You are redeemed of God to reign in life through Christ Jesus our Lord. This is absolutely certain, a fact and truth to all areas of our life. It's not limited to certain groups, classes, gender or race. But it's a choice of life for all in Christ Jesus our Lord. God wants you to reign in life that is why Christ paid for your liberty and freedom to reign in life; that is, to reign over Sickness, Poverty and Spiritual death. God wants you to reign over all the effects that these three elements have caused to humanity in all aspect of livelihood.

Hence to reign in this context is much more about being able to predominate, take charge, to govern, to rule, to prevail, to triumph, to achieve, to bring under control, to lead etc.

Jeremiah 17:10 and Jeremiah 29:11, remind and reaffirm God's original intention from the beginning for you and all; that is for a glorious, and awesome high throne and not a mediocre place and lifestyle; but a well-planned and thought through life for you; a life that would give you a hope and a future with peace to accompany it. What is as gracious as having peace of mind and hearts in all of one's life endeavours under the sun in a turbulent, evil and wicked world we live in today. That's God's excellent intent for you and all on this side of heaven before the glorious home above.

*“Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, 4 who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father: 5 to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.” Galatians 1:3-5.

Prophetic Declaration:

I hereby declare that by the reason of the Lord's grace, that from this Month of November 2014, the light of God's Word to envision in this publication will begin to make manifest in you and through you in the fullness of our God:

- • That you might reign in life excellently according to the light of Romans 5:17, 21.
- • That you might envision through the most excellent way - love, and to the edifying of others according to 1 Corinthians 12:31; 1 Corinthians 14:12.
- • That you might receive the illumination and enlightenment to see and perceive all about you in God according to Jeremiah 1:11-12.
- • That you might envision clearly so that you can walk in the path of our God into your destiny unhindered according to Mark 8:22-26.
- • That God might bless you with all spiritual blessings in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus our Lord, according to Ephesians 1:3-14.
- • That God might give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him according to Ephesians 1:15-22.
- • That God might grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by His Spirit in the inner man; that Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; and to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that you might be filled with all the fulness of God according to Ephesians 3:14-20.
- • That you might reign excellently as you envision your God's given plans, purposes and pursuits according to 1 Corinthians 14:12.

NOVEMBER 2014 WISDOM NUGGETS:

a. You Are Redeemed To Reign In Life:

“Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: 14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins.”

Colossians 1:13-14.

“In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace; 8Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence.”

Ephesians 1:7-8.

“And they sang a new song, saying: “You are worthy to take the scroll, And to open its seals; For You were slain, And have redeemed us to God by Your blood Out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation, 10 And have made us kings and priests to our God; And we shall REIGN on the earth.”

Revelation 5:9-10.

At Eden of Adam, we fell from the grace of God, from grace to grass they say; but at redemption, we were redeemed in Christ Jesus. We are not just redeemed, we were redeemed to reign in life on earth excellently. We are to reign most importantly and primarily over sin and the effects of sin, which are - sickness, poverty and spiritual death. We are to reign over all the consequence that these effects of sin have on humanity. These are effects on family, marriage, business, government, career, politics, career, leadership, ministry, relationship and such like.

In reality, some believers in Christ who ought to be triumphant in every place and be high achievers in their respective fields in the Lord are still being subjected to the cunningness and craftiness of the enemy and his cohorts. This makes them live lives full of complains and frustrations.

DEATH*

*“For if by the one man’s offense death reigned through the one, much more those who receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will REIGN in life through the One, Jesus Christ.)” Romans 5:17.

*“Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and through us diffuses the fragrance of His knowledge in every place.” 2 Corinthians 2:14.

Beloved achievers in Christ, let me remind and reaffirm to you from the scriptural writ above that we are redeemed to reign in life on earth; that is, to predominate, take charge, to govern, to rule, to prevail, to triumph, to achieve, to bring about and under control, to lead in every phase of our life challenges no matter what and how long it takes. You must consummate your thought life and being, of who you are in Christ. Just like Abraham who called those envision things that were not as though they were until their manifestation and they became a reality.

“(as it is written, “I have made you a father of many nations”) in the presence of Him whom he believed—God, who gives life to the dead and calls those things which do not exist as though they did; 18 who, contrary to hope, in hope believed, so that he became the father of many nations, according to what was spoken, “So shall your descendants be.” 19 And not being weak in faith, he did not consider his own body, already dead (since he was about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah’s womb. 20

He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God, 21 and being fully convinced that what He had promised He was also able to perform.” Romans 4:17-21.

b. To Envision & To Reign:

To envision, in the context of this month’s theme, is not about seeing visions, but about the ability to see and perceive possibilities in light of God's word to enhance all God's plans, purposes and pursuits in life through you. You can be whatsoever God has purposed for you to become in His Word and excel in it for your own good; for the good of humanity and of the advancement of the kingdom of God; and in keeping the enemy at bay; but if you can't envision God's intent for you and the possibilities of it, there are bound to be dark places and struggles to fulfil one's destiny in life.

"Moreover the word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree. 12 Then said the Lord unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it."
Jeremiah 1:11-12.

"And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him. 23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought. 24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking. 25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly. 26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town." Mark 8:22-26

To Envision also means to imagine the possible, to conceive of, to see of one's mind, to envisage, to ideate, to picture to oneself, to visualize, to figure, to image, to see and more of the plan, purpose, and pursuit of God in your life to succeed, triumph, overcome, win and achieve the desired greatness of God in you excellently.

To envision is not about seeing visions, but the ability to see and perceive possibilities in the light of God's word in all that concerns you and pertaining to life and godliness; It thus means that understanding how to envision those plans, purposes and pursuits of one's life will help one to navigate and august (to be inspired, to make grand, to make noble, to make honourable and to make admirable) one's life in order to reign over all circumstances and situations.

*"A man who wanders from the way of understanding Will rest in the assembly of the dead (forgotten)." Proverb 21:16.

*"Good understanding giveth favour: but the way of transgressors is hard (difficult)." Proverb 13:15.

2 Corinthians 8:9; Ephesians 1:7; 2:4, 7; 3:8; Philippians 4:19; Colossians 1:27; Colossians 2:2; Revelation 1:5-6; Revelation 5:9-12.

The Scriptures above collectively show what we are meant to be in Christ as He purposed. He purposed for us to fully understand Christ in us who is the mystery of God. Make a choice to be rich in Christ and to make an impact in the world around you. Choose to see and perceive the possibilities of the Word in their fulness working for you.

*"Folly is set in great dignity, While the rich sit in a lowly place. 7 I have seen servants on horses, while princes walk on the ground like servants." Ecclesiastes 10:6-7.

c. Envision Before Embarking On Any Mission.

God's plans and intents for us are always for the best, anytime and anywhere.

“for I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace & not of evil, to give you an expected end.”

JEREMIAH 29:11

Many times we've failed in our mission to excel in life because our mission has not got a clear cut comprehension from the start and sometimes right through the course of that mission that we've embarked on.

Failing to envision before embarking on a mission may cause resources like finances, time, effort and more to be misspent or even wasted; consequently, the expected intent damaged.

Just like the horse is prepared against the day of battle according to Proverbs 21:31, resources for a mission need to be prepared with a clear cut vision before that mission is embarked on in order for it to be fulfilled and to have an excellent result at the end of the day.

This is applicable to any phase in life - for example, a student needs to envision what course to study before sourcing the books and materials to enhance such a career, otherwise, the diligent effort to study will be wasted. 'ENVISION BEFORE EMBARKING ON ANY MISSION'.

“Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.” (Proverbs 29:18).

“The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the Lord” (Proverbs 21:31).

“... How can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.” (Matthew 12:29).

“And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.” (Colossians 4:17).

“For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the

d. Envision The WAGON And Be Revived.

A majority of people would not despise any healthy opportunity to rise above the norm. Prosperity is good and it is of God.

“I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.” Psalms 37:25.

“Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour my righteous cause: yea, let them say continually, Let the Lord be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.” Psalms 35:27.

“Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.” 3 John 2.

Joseph came to Egypt and prospered on the fulfilment of what he had seen and perceived which was made of God upon His life. When Jacob learnt that Joseph was in fact alive and that he was meant to go to Egypt to see him, he could not believe his sons. But when he SAW the WAGON (the means of transport) with the goodness and goodies that accompanied it, his weakened spirit-being of unbelief and fear was revived, it came alive.

If you can give room to envision God's plan, purpose and pursuit in your life, the wagon and associates to keep your faith and total being alive will come along with grace and ease. This I know and understand very well. In fact, your prayer life and faith life will change for the best.

The Wagons and goodies that Jacob saw kept him alive and made him take the next step and leap of faith to see Joseph his son. The place of abundance and prosperity is leads us to TRIUMPH in CHRIST”

2 CORINTHIANS 2:14

a far, far better position to be in life than to stay still and at ease in poverty and lack due to not acting to envision the prosperity of the wagon and the need to become well and whole again. Envisioning prosperity in Christ is not a day dreaming event and mere imaginations but the act to envision by the WORD. God's course is for you to do well in life.

*“And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father, 26 and told him, saying, Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And Jacob's heart fainted, for he believed them not. 27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he SAW the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived: 28 and Israel said, It is enough; Joseph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.” Genesis 45:25-28.

e. Envision Your Turnaround:

God made the rich and the poor person, but God did not make them so. People become what they are and not who they are by the choices they made or they allowed to be made for them.

If for example you chose to be corrupt or elect a corrupt leader or government to be in governance, you will live by the consequences of it. This is not who you are but what you allowed, and this is out of choice and not the makings of God. God will only commend what He commands.

“The Lord maketh poor, and maketh rich: he bringeth low, and lifteth up. 8 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the Lord's, and he hath set the world upon them. 9 He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail. 10 The adversaries of the Lord shall be broken to pieces; out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: the Lord shall judge the ends of the earth; and he shall give strength unto his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed” 1 Samuel 2:7-10.

When you believe on what you see and perceive according to God’s Word, you become it. Whatever it is that you envision, the Word of God must be the first and final authority for judgment. You may receive counsel where necessary, but the Word of God should be the final verdict for the possibility and divine involvement and empowerment. When the Lord is involved, the certainty of His grace will always be there for your turnaround no matter how low you’ve been in life prior to your envisioning.

“To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.” Isaiah 8:20.

f. Envision To Reigning In Life Excellently:

You must be prepared to dress up for your worth in order to reign excellently on what you envisioned. Joseph dressed for the throne, shaved and cleaned up, never to return to the prison statuesque again. He had envisaged that now was his my time to reign in excellence as he had envisioned by the Word years before.

Do not plan or live life below your envision. You have to work and walk according to your belief in what you see and perceive of God concerning you in His eternal plans, purpose and pursuit to ensure completeness in Him. Your worth is on how you demonstrate what you believe of God to make possible for your envisioned destiny.

You can’t envision being a doctor in medicine and dress up your life as a historian or agriculturist would. You have to measure up your life towards the path of destiny that will ensure your envision life to become are made possible. There’s a path to follow in line with your envision to make

*“ . . . Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon: and he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh . . . And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants. 38 And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the Spirit of God is? 39 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art: 40 thou shalt be over my house, and according unto thy word shall all my people be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou. . .” Genesis 41:1-44.

*“But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.” Proverbs 4:18.

g. Envision To Reign: Stop Existing, Start Living!

Life is for living and not for a mere existence. If you can't envision it by the WORD and not by a mere imagination, life will be a mere existence and not worth living. You are redeemed, that is re-owned by God from the grips of sin, the reason for sickness, poverty and spiritual death that you might live to reign in life. When you live by mere existence, you can't reign in life, but when you live by the envisioned Word, you live and reign in life.

“And [now] they sing a new song, saying, You are worthy to take the scroll and to break the seals that are on it, for You were slain (sacrificed), and with Your blood You purchased men unto God from every tribe and language and people and nation. 10 And You have made them a kingdom (royal race) and priests to *our God, and they shall reign [as kings] over the earth!” Revelation 5:9-10 - Amplified.

*“For if because of one man’s trespass (lapse, offense) death reigned through that one, much more surely will those who receive [God’s] overflowing grace (unmerited favor) and the free gift of righteousness [putting them into right standing with Himself] reign as kings in life through the one Man Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One). . . So that, [just] as sin has reigned in death, [so] grace (His unearned and undeserved favor) might reign also through righteousness (right standing with God) which issues in eternal life through Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One) our Lord.” Romans 5:17, 21 - Amplified.

Reigning in life begins with reigning over the dominion of sin. When sin is put to death in an individual’s life, the flood gates of heaven are unveiled to the individual with the enabling grace and empowerment to live and reign in life over the effects of sin – Sickness, Poverty and Spiritual Death.

*“Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.” Psalms 19:13.

*“For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.” Romans 5:17.

Reigning in life excellently means reigning in the fulness of God’s nature and grace, which is excellent. He’s the God of excellency and wants His own to reign as He is. For as He is in Heaven, so are we in this World, the Holy writ indicates. As new creation, we now have God’s nature embedded in our DNA of Him, if indeed you have come to believe that He indwells in you and the blood of our Lord and Saviour

h. Envision - God's Plan of Greatness Awaits You!

What do you envision for your family, marriage, spouse, career, ministry, business and such like? Greatness awaits you, but it's your choice to envision and make it in the kingdom. If you can't see and perceive it in the spirit you'll never see the need to get fully committed and sold into it, in order to make it come to be by the Word. Possibility is only ensured if you can see and perceive it.

*“For I know the thoughts and plans that I have for you, says the Lord, thoughts and plans for welfare and peace and not for evil, to give you hope in your final outcome.” Jeremiah 29:11 - Amplified.

What do you envision for your life, where do you see your life? If you can answer it, to reign and excel in life will be simple to imagine and to come to terms with. Otherwise, you will be doing what everyone is doing without a self-worth, plan, purpose, pursuit in life. Don't attempt to be somebody else in life because you are unique, fearfully and wonderfully made. There is something special about you that no eyes have seen or heard and perceived yet. And until you discover it to recover for the good of a living worth, there will be lots of struggle to attain it. Don't let it be, don't fault someone else; it's time to envision it for yourself. See and perceive the possibility of it in God's word for you. As Abraham saw, so he became in life and godliness. What about You? What do you envision?

*“But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.” 1 Corinthians 2:9.

*“And the Lord said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward: 15 for all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever. 16 And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered. 17 Arise, walk through the land in the length of it and in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee. 18 Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and built there an altar unto the Lord.” Genesis 13:14-18.

i. Excellence Is Pure - Envision It!

It's true that God still loves us in faith as He loves the unsaved, but He doesn't commend a life being lived outside His Word. As I have always said time and again that our God will only commend what He commands. All things will work for the good of those who not only love God BUT walk and do according to His Word.

Many times, God's purposes of excellence for us, are so clear before us, but we need to walk and work in the course of that envisioned covenant of His grace; and if one begins to act outside His Word, we will surely lose out in our place of grace to excel. That's what happened to Reuben the first born of Jacob. He was born for envisioned excellence, he lost his place of blessings to his younger brother Joseph when he slept with one of His father's wives. You can't eat your cake and have it. When you look through the heroes of Faith in Patriarchal order of Hebrews chapter eleven, you will notice after Jacob comes Joseph instead of Reuben though he was his father's excellency of power and dignity. That's why you must be on guard of your envisioned excellence.

EXCELLENCE IS PURE! So, if you crave to have God's good and best, watch your path of life.

“And Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you in the last days. 2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob; and hearken unto Israel your father. 3 Reuben, thou art my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power: 4 unstable as water; thou shalt not excel; because thou wentest up to thy father's bed; then defiledst thou it: he went up to my couch. . . 22 Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose branches run over the wall: 23 the archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him: 24 but his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob; (from thence is the shepherd, the stone of Israel:) 25 even by the God of thy father, who shall help thee; and by the Almighty, who shall bless thee with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lieth under, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb: 26 the blessings of thy father have prevailed above the blessings of my progenitors unto the utmost bound of the everlasting hills: they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him that was separate from his brethren. “Genesis 49:1-4, 22-26.

“. . . By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. 21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff. 22 By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones. . .” Hebrews 11:20-22.

LIVING EPISTLES

a. The Blind Man of Bethsaida.

*“Then He came to Bethsaida; and they brought a blind man to Him, and begged Him to touch him. 23 So He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the town. And when He had spit on his eyes and put His hands on him, He asked him if he saw anything. 24 And he looked up and said, “I see men like trees, walking.” 25 Then He put His hands on his eyes again and made him look up. And he was restored and saw everyone clearly. 26 Then He sent him away to his house, saying, “Neither go into the town, nor tell anyone in the town.” Mark 8:22-26.

When Jesus spit into the blind man eye that he may see, that is, envision his sight to greatness, the man failed the first test when Jesus asked him what do you see, in other words, what do you envision. He said he saw men like trees walking. That’s how some people in the kingdom are today. They can see in the natural but can’t envision or perceive the light of the scripture in their life, hence can’t achieve, win and triumph nor reign in life by the scripture in most of their life battles. Thank God for Jesus, in that He gave the man another opportunity. He needed to do it again for the blind man to see, envision, his life clearly in the light of His presence. He can touch you again, if you call on him.

If you are in this state of life today, of not knowing what life is all about for you, this month's theme is made or assigned for you as a wakeup call for you to arise and envision so that both you and those that you care about and could have affected positively can now begin to experience the glorious changes needed to reign in life excellently by the act of - Envisioning it.

b. Prophet Jeremiah:

*“Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: 5 ‘Before I formed you in the womb I knew you; Before you were born I sanctified you; I ordained you a prophet to the nations.’ 6 Then said I: ‘Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, I cannot speak, for I am a youth.’ 7 But the LORD said to me: ‘Do not say, ‘I am a youth,’ For you shall go to all to whom I send you, And whatever I command you, you shall speak. 8 Do not be afraid of their faces, For I am with you to deliver you,” says the LORD. 9 Then the LORD put forth His hand and touched my mouth, and the LORD said to me: “Behold, I have put My words in your mouth. 10 See, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, To root out and to pull down, To destroy and to throw down, To build and to plant.” 11 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, “Jeremiah, what do you see?” And I said, “I see a branch of an almond tree.” 12 Then the LORD said to me, “You have seen well, for I am ready to perform My word.” Jeremiah 1:4-12

Jeremiah was limiting himself in Jeremiah 1:6. He claimed to be a novice and mediocre in spiritual leadership and probably in things that pertain to life and godliness in the kingdom. However, in Jeremiah 1:7-10, the Lord spoke into him the words of grace and the need to see, that is, to envision His grace in him to attain in life. But to authenticate the words of grace (as we are privileged to have the bible today), the Lord God prepared him by asking him a question as found in Jeremiah 1:11-12: "What do you see, in other words, what do you envision about you in my eternal plan, purpose and pursuit".

The Lord knows that his sub-conscious instinct to see and perceive by the act of envision will grant him insight and foresight in all that pertains to God's plan, purpose and pursuit for him; also to reign and achieve in life excellently as he eventually did. The envision answers to the Lords quest to him was a turning point in his life from the spirit of fear - inferiority complex - and from being an obscure man into a glorious position God's original intention for him and for all.

"A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary" Jeremiah 17:12.

"For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the Lord, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end." Jeremiah 29:11.

c. Abraham! Father of Faith:

"And the LORD said to Abram, after Lot had separated from him: Lift your eyes now and look from the place where you are—northward, southward, eastward, and westward; 15 for all the land which you see I give to you and your descendants forever. 16 And I will make your descendants as the dust of the earth; so that if a man could number the dust of the earth, then your descendants also could be numbered. 17 Arise, walk in the land through its length and its width, for I give it to you." 18 Then Abram moved his tent, and went and dwelt by the terebinth trees of Mamre which are in Hebron, and built an altar there to the LORD." Genesis 13:14-18.

take all the good looking opportunities and fertile places before you, you will require an envisioning life to make a hedge way in life. This was the state of Abraham when he and his cousin - Mr Lot - who had brought him a lot of problems left in separate ways due to business uprising and strife among employees of both parties.

“And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents. 6 And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together. 7 And there was a strife between the herdsmen of Abram’s cattle and the herdsmen of Lot’s cattle: and the Canaanite and the Perizzite dwelled then in the land. 8 And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdsmen and thy herdsmen; for we be brethren. 9 Is not the whole land before thee? separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left. 10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Zoar. 11 Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other. 12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom. 13 But the men of Sodom were wicked and sinners before the Lord exceedingly.”
Genesis 13:1-13.

It was in the course of this disarray and confusion in destiny decision making, that the Lord God brought the need for envisioning, before the father of faith, as we call him - Abraham - in Genesis 13:14-18. This was the defining moment on his pathway to greatness and to reign in life excellently. The Lord God told Abraham that he could inherit as far as his eye could see - that is - whatever he envisioned he would possess. Genesis 13:15.

What more can I say about Abraham. He began life again and reigned over all limitations excellently as in the Holy Writ. The scripture makes it very clear to us in Galatians 3:14-14, 26-28 and in many other scriptures that we share in Abrahamic blessings. But if you can't envision it, it will be an illusion.

d. Apostle Paul:

*“At midday, O king, along the road I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who journeyed with me. 14 And when we all had fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me and saying in the Hebrew language, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.’ 15 So I said, ‘Who are You, Lord?’ And He said, ‘I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. 16 But rise and stand on your feet; for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to make you a minister and a witness both of the things which you have seen and of the things which I will yet reveal to you. 17 I will deliver you from the Jewish people, as well as from the Gentiles, to whom I now send you, 18 to open their eyes, in order to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in Me.” Acts 26:13-19.

The great Apostle Paul, who wrote more than half of the New Testament could not have become what he became except by what he saw, that is, envisioned. He saw at midday, at the fulness of the Sun eclipse, when all things could be seen clearly, something beyond what his natural instinct could have perceived.

He envisioned beyond the natural even though he was a very learned man. It is that sort of envisioned atmosphere that made him reign in life to fulfil all about God that concerned him. He saw - envisioned - the Son of God (the true light of the World) and not the Sun (limited natural light of the world) shown around him.

Until you begin to envision the plan, purpose and pursuit of God for your life in the person of Christ, who is the WORD of God, your destined intent to reign in life excellently is not fully insured, assured and secured - 1 John 5:7; John 1:1-5, 12, 14.

e. Prophet Isaiah:

“In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, and the train of His robe filled the temple. 2 Above it stood seraphim; each one had six wings: with two he covered his face, with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. 3 And one cried to another and said: “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; The whole earth is full of His glory!” 4 And the posts of the door were shaken by the voice of him who cried out, and the house was filled with smoke. 5 So I said: “Woe is me, for I am undone! Because I am a man of unclean lips, And I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; For my eyes have seen the King, The LORD of hosts.” 6 Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a live coal which he had taken with the tongs from the altar. 7 And he touched my mouth with it, and said: “Behold, this has touched your lips; your iniquity is taken away, And your sin purged.” 8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying: “Whom shall I send, And who will go for Us?” Then I said, “Here am I! Send me.” 9 And He said, “Go, and tell this people: ‘Keep on hearing, but do not understand; Keep on seeing, but do not perceive.’” Isaiah 6:1-9.

Until prophet Isaiah - King Uzziah - died, he could not see and perceive, that is, envision the glorious positioning of his life and ministry. When the flesh, the carnal nature died out of him, Isaiah for the first time saw and perceived -envisioned - the fullness of His destiny in God.

Before Isaiah Chapter six (6), Isaiah was in the pocket of his King Uzziah and His God was absent in his plan, purpose and pursuit. There are many so called believers in Christ who are like Isaiah before chapter six (6) in the Church today whose destiny is only tied to their job or worldly possession and position. Outside that, God is not a major decision maker in their life. They are strangers to reigning in life excellently by the word. They reign by their job or business or other means of livelihood as found in various media formats today.

I do know that when Isaiah saw and perceived the Lord as in the holy writ, everything about him changed and he was totally and completely transformed to ensure and assure he reigned in life excellently by the knowledge of the word. The rest is history.

Finally

a. Let's Envision To Reign In Life Excellently!

There is hope for you today for the potter's second touch, just as the blind man was touched again that he might see clearly. This will help you picture your path of life clearly to enable you reign in life excellently. For a clear cut envision of you in life will help you do life without stress, sweat, and pain.

Romans 5:17.

Beloved Achiever, there is an abundance of grace and the gift of life that God has made available for you to reign in life. Our place is to envision the possibility by appropriating it in the light of the Scriptures.

You are redeemed to reign over the challenges of the battles that come over you not to be swallowed up and be overwhelmed by them. Surely trials and troubles will come but we are more than conquerors through him that loves us and redeemed us by His blood. When you are living life by the envisioning of the Scriptures, you are insured and assured of divine breakthroughs and breaking-forth into your God given dwelling places.

However, more of this theme will be detailed and expanded in course of the SERVICES & TIMES in all meetings through the month. I gladly welcome you, your friends and family if you live in the city of Bristol, England as you come to any of our meetings to fellowship and worship. I promise you that you can never be the same again as you ponder over the truth of these unadulterated, inspiring, revealing and empowering living word of God.

b. Let's Pray:

I pray you have an amazing, majestic and awesome month this NOVEMBER. I pray for gracious opportunities and possibilities to ENVISION EXCELLENCY in your life. I pray you REIGN according to the Scriptures for your blessings and humanity and to the glory of God.

DARE TO ... ENVISION ... ACHIEVE ... REIGN ... EXCEL ... IN LIFE!

*In His Kingdom For His Glory,
Rev. Chukie MORSI Snr*

“What do you KNOW?”

God moves in your life according to what you think and believe. It is through the Word and in spending time in His presence that we get to know God intimately. This then governs our thoughts and beliefs.

PROVERBS 4:5 ... Get skilful and godly Wisdom, get understanding (discernment, comprehension, and interpretation); do not forget and do not turn back from the words of my mouth. (Proverbs 4:5 AMP)

2 Peter 1:3 ... For His divine power has bestowed upon us all things that [are requisite and suited] to life and godliness, through the [full, personal] knowledge of Him Who called us by and to His own glory and excellence (virtue). (AMP)

Everything that you need will come through what you know - through the knowledge that you have.

Or put it this way, the knowledge that you do not have will limit that which God can do in your life.

If I were to represent you in a court of law, I had better know my law. You may be innocent but if I cannot defend you according to the understanding of the law of the land - you are doomed. People have been acquitted just because the prosecution may not have had the sufficient knowledge and not because of innocence.

In a similar way - when you know what the Word of God says about an issue that you are going through, you know how to benefit fully through prayer, through what you say and what you do.

Faith comes by hearing the Word of God according to Hebrews 11:1. What is not of faith is sin the Bible says.

Romans 14:23 ...for whatever is not of faith is sin.

It is what you know that will set you free. You need to understand that without your cooperation, the enemy cannot do anything to you. This involves putting on the whole armour of God ready as would a horse before the day of battle. It is not about scrambling to put it on when you see the enemy approaching. It may be too late then. Live ready in the knowledge of His Word.

Proverbs 3:13 ...Happy (blessed, fortunate, enviable) is the man who finds skilful and godly Wisdom, and the man who gets understanding [drawing it forth from God's Word and life's experiences], (AMP)
